

When you make your decision concerning broadcast ownership and media consolidation on 2nd June, I strongly urge you to keep the current ownership rules. It is vital that the media serve the public rather than private interests. Media consolidation is already out of control and we shouldn't go down that road any further.

Sincerely,

Dr. Andrew C. Millard

(Your comments system seems to have bugs. On coming to this page, someone else's name, address and comments were already in the form.)